

Bu Scherf

Mr. Scherf is a professional orchestral double bassist based in North Carolina, USA. He is currently a member of the Winston-Salem, Greensboro and Asheville Symphonies. He also performs with the Roanoke, VA Symphony. He also frequently performs with Piedmont Opera, Opera Company of NC and the Asheville Lyric and Roanoke Opera companies.

Before relocating to NC, Mr . Scherf received a MFA from Boston University in 1993. While in New England he was engaged by the Rhode Island Philharmonic, the Portland Symphony ,Handel & Haydn Society, and the Boston Ballet.

Chamber music performances include engagements with The Sitka Summer Music Festival, El Paso Pro Musica, SEMO SCMI and this summer he is pleased to be invited to join the 2017 edition of FSDA.

Outside of performance obligations, Mr. Scherf is a veteran music librarian. Appointments have included the Winston-Salem and Asheville Symphonies, Piedmont Opera, the UNCSA Fletcher Opera Institute, the Brevard Music Center and the Aspen Music Festival and School.